Responsibility:

The tour is subject to the terms and conditions imposed by the suppliers. All possible care is taken to ensure that suppliers maintain a high standard. Accordingly, Globetrotter Corporate Travel cannot be held responsible in any way for day to day problems resulting from the booking or any loss arising, unless it is the direct result of negligence on our part, but any liability on our part shall be limited to a maximum of the cost subject to those conditions. We are unable to accept responsibility for any aspects of your journey affected by matter over which we have no control, including without limitations, war or threat of war, terrorist activity, natural disaster, weather conditions, fire, flood, drought, industrial disputes or action or reasonable apprehension of the foregoing, cancellation, curtailment or rescheduling of travel.

Passports:

All participants must travel on a valid passport. You must have a minimum of three consecutive blank pages available and a validity of no less than six months. Australian Passport holders may travel under the Visa Waiver Program (VWP). Obviously, you have plenty of time to organize this.

Alterations:

Although unlikely, any changes to the itinerary can be changed at the discretion of the agent with or without notice.

I, (full name) _____ indicate that I have read and understood the terms and conditions as stated above.
