

Attention All Western Breed Owners!!

Ever thought about entering halter events with your western bred horse?

Calling all quarter horse, appaloosa & paint owners, the WAQHA is holding a “learning day” for those interested in; halter (breed) classes, showmanship classes, yearling lungeline & yearling led trail. Bring your horse or baby along to learn all about these classes in a nice and relaxed, non pressure atmosphere.

Come along and get some tips and learn more about these events that are held at the western breed shows.

You could be a first timer to the show ring or even have already entered a few shows. There is always something to learn or great tips to pick up and take home.

This will be run by actual club members, your fellow show peers, who are keen to volunteer their time to help. All who’ve had experience in the show ring and preparing for the show ring and are willing to pass on their knowledge and experience to help you.

- Find out how shows are run
- Find out what to wear without it costing the earth
- Find out what exactly the judges are looking for
- Learn some great tips on how to teach and train you and your horse for these events
- Learn some tips on presentation and preparation
- Take home a booklet which we hope will help get you and your horse into the show ring

$20.00 Learning day fee

$15.00 ground fee

$15.00 temporary membership for insurance purposes for non AQHA & WAQHA members.
