-a boy should always ride the boy's pony & a girl ride the girl's pony winner.

-a pony may compete with different riders in rider classes but not the same class.

-If both riders qualify for the championship, both may compete on the same pony at the discretion of the judge*.

*but permission has to be sought from the judge before the commencement of the class, as to whether they can compete on both ponies in the championship or a substitute rider be obtained.

Stallions

A. May compete in ridden stallion classes, harness classes & classes where the pony competes individually i.e. Handy pony, Dressage, hunter, Jumping etc.

B. Can be used in Handler classes where the Handler is competent & 16 years & over.

Harness

A. harness exhibits must be 4 years & over.

B. protective headgear ASS standard must be worn by under 18 years at all times.

C. a competent groom/passenger over 18 years of age must be present at all times.

D. once "put to" a driver must be in the vehicle at all times.

E. a driving whip must be carried & an apron or lap rug worn, hat & gloves are recommended.

F. Junior driver –

6 – 10 years inclusive must be accompanied by an adult (an experienced driving person) as passenger seated alongside & holding a 2nd pair of reins attached to the bit.

11- 15 years inclusive must be accompanied by an adult (an experienced driving person) as passenger seated alongside at all times (it is optional for a 2nd pair of reins attached to the bit.)

16 – 17 years inclusive competing with a single pony carry a groom or passenger at their discretion.

16 – 17 years inclusive may drive a pair of ponies but not a larger combination.

16 – 17 years inclusive maybe allowed to drive stallions at the discretion of the organizers.

Junior Drivers & passengers must wear approved protective head gear (ASS standards Helmet) & boots.

G. Where a pony qualified for a championship in separate classes, a decision has to be made who will drive the pony in the championship i.e. winning both Ladies & Gent pony class.

H. in Driver classes, if a pony is driven by both a gent & lady & wins both classes, both Drivers are eligible to compete for the championship *

(It would be expected that the 2nd driver would be out of the vehicle & waiting at the end of the line so changeover can be made without holding up the championship)

*but permission has to be sought from the judge before the commencement of the championship.
