OTT Class Requirements

- Open to OTT TB's and Stb's 3 years and over
- 14.2 hands and over
- Racing Name to be used for entries
- Horses must have officially raced, or trialled either locally or internationally
- Ridden classes judged on the horses thoroughbred qualities confirmation, manners, paces and performance
- Race blemishes / injuries permitted
- Previous class winners of OTT classes from other events are ineligible to compete
- Best OTT high performance horse based on points from the classes of WT and WTC. In case of a tie, the one with the most first placings will win.

Definition of a Hack and Hunter

Please read before selecting classes, and if unsure, refer to the judge on the day.

An ideal show hunter will have a significantly greater depth of girth, and although not lacking in length of rein or cleanness through the gullet, it will have far greater natural substance of the neck. Generally, a hunter will have shorter cannon bones than his show hack counterpart, and overall heavier bone.
