ABOUT THE JUDGES: DEBBIE MCCOSH AND NYCOLE BROWN

DEBBIE MCCOSH

Originally from Esperance, I have been involved with horses at a very young age from Pony Club to riding racehorses.

The family moved to the Peel District, and I lived not far from an Arab Stud and this is where the love the Arab commenced, thru riding and eventually Carriage Driving. Then I bred a Part Welsh and became a owner of a Welsh B Pony mare and started Springwater Welsh Pony Stud which led me to import a UK Welsh Pony Stallion and Welsh Mare in foal. The Welsh breed is used for all the family and very happy that we have been successful with the ponies I have breed in various disciplines.

I have been on committees of the Arab Society WA, Welsh Pony and Cob Society WA RPG also Australian Carriage Driving Society local and Federal. Completed a Show Driving Handbook which was a great accomplishment.

NYCOLE BROWN

I have been a successful breeder and exhibitor. I have bred and shown my Pinto Ponies, Arabians and Dilute Arabian Derivatives for about 20 years. I have competed all over Western Australia at state level and been highly successful.

I have been judging all horse disciplines for about 10 years now and I enjoy it very much. I have recently retired from breeding horses. When I am not judging I work in a mixed veterinary practice. I have a love for all creatures great and small.
