A brief word from our Judges

Louise Laity, South Australia

Thank you for the pleasure to judge your horses.

My history began as a child on the land. Enjoying many outback gymkhanas& novelties, Harness showing, Riding in sprint races at picnic meetings. I began a Pony stud APSB+Riding ponies with Bernarra Firefly from where I have successfully shown many youngsters.

I enjoyed playing polo x / polo for many years with some top thoroughbred horses.

Quarter horse showing was a fun highlight for me which I enjoyed for many years also. Owning HOTY & NATIONAL WINNERS having the Famous Hunter Galloway "Farley Litton".

I have Judged in NZ, at the Canberra Royal, Melbourne Royal and APSB & the miniatures. Having my daughter Sam Kennedy still showing at National level, and now my granddaughter Show jumping has ensured I have enjoyed it all, kind Regards, Louise Laity .

Maryann Dunstall, South Australia

I am Delighted to be judging for at your Dilutes state Championships and All Colour Championships. I have been involved in breeding and showing horses and ponies for most of my life. My passion is part Welsh although I love the Welsh too and miniatures ponies and of course Harness!!

My passion for Welsh started when I started driving my beautiful Welsh mountain pony Stallion Hazelmere Lago. He was a natural and launched my long driving career which has seen me compete at many breed and agricultural shows including the Royal Adelaide with great success.

I still activity show but I love to give back to the showing community by judging and also helping to run local shows and events.
