2023 EWA Horse and Rider of the Year

GENERAL RULES AND CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

The event is to be run under EA rules in so far as they are applicable to this event and shall include any other rules formulated by the organising committee. We strongly recommend that all competitors obtain a copy of the relevant EA rules through the EWA website www.equestrianwa.org.au

These rules are to be read in conjunction with the EA Disciplinary By-Laws, Member Protection Policy and Medication Control Policy. They will be reviewed from time to time, and updated as necessary. Ignorance of the rules will not be accepted as an excuse for any breach of the rules. The appointment of a Steward or other Official whether or not provided for in these rules, does not absolve the competitor from such responsibility.

Making an entry to an event under the control of Equestrian Western Australia constitutes implicit acceptance of the EA and EWA Show Horse rules.

CLOSE OF ENTRIES:

- ❖ Entries close 9 pm Perth time Monday 7th August 2023 on Nominate www.nominate.com.au. No late entries will be accepted under any circumstance and no manual entries will be received.

STATE HORSE OF THE YEAR AND RIDER CHAMPIONSHIPS:

These rules are to be adhered to by the State Organising Committee in the conduct of State Horse of the Year and Rider Championships and only refer to those classes that qualify horses/riders for the Australasian Show Horse and Rider Championships. All State Committees that do not adhere to these rules may render all riders and horses ineligible for competing at that year's Australasian Horse and Rider Championships at the discretion of the NSHC.

- The event is to be conducted under the rules and by-laws of Equestrian Australia.
- Horses must be registered with the Equestrian Australia Ltd and at least any one owner/leasee must be a financial member of that State and registration papers be in the name of the owner or lease at the time of entry.
- Horses can only be shown at State HOY by a financial member of that State.
- Show Horse, Show Hunter, Child's classes and Leading Rein classes – All horses must have a current EA height certificate. Refer to the EA Measuring Rules.
- A horse that has a height protest lodged against it is ineligible to compete at an EA State Horse of the Year Show until re-measuring has occurred.
- A horse that has a protest lodged against it and is re-measured must compete in accordance with the National Show Horse Rules 1.1.4.
- An EA qualified measurer will be in attendance at all EA State Horse of the Year shows for re-measuring purposes.
- For all EA State Show Horse Championships and EA Australasian Show Horse and Rider Championships all protests must be lodged at least four hours before the advertised time of the start of the Event (not the class).
- Winners, 1st & 2nd runners up in Classes 1-7, 10, 13-20, 22-31, 40-49 are invited to represent Western Australia at the 2022 Australasian Show horse and Rider Championships to be held at SIEC from 30 November to 2 December 2023.
- The winner & runner up of the Off the Track Thoroughbred class (39) will be invited to represent Western Australia at the 2023 Australasian Show Horse and Rider Championships.
- No State or National badges, pin or emblem may be worn.

- Once class has commenced no change of riders whilst waiting for individual workout (exception ring sitters)

INTERSTATE HOTY

- Show Horse, Show Hunter, Child's Show Horse, Child's Show Hunter and Leading Rein classes – If a horse has competed in a qualifying class at a H&ROTY in the current year in another State it is not eligible to compete in another H&ROTY in the same calendar year.
- Rider Classes – If a rider has competed at a H&ROTY in the current year in a qualifying class in another State they are not eligible to compete in another HOTY in the same calendar year.
- Show Hunter – If a horse/pony is entered as a Show Hunter it will be precluded from entering the State Horse of the Year as a Show Horse.

STATE SHOW HORSE AND RIDER CHAMPIONSHIP CLASSES

Please refer to National Show Horse Rules available at www.waequestrian.org.au

- Random swabbing will take place in accordance with the EA Medication Control Policy.
- All judges were randomly selected and contacted in order of selection until there were four (4) accepting judges.
- The Judge's decision is final.
- As a minimum, a winner and runner-up is to be sashed and announced at the event.
- In qualifying Show Horse, Show Hunter, Rider, Lead Rein and Child's classes three judges must be used as per the National Show Horse Judges System (excluding Northern Territory due to geographic isolation).
- All qualifying events for the Australasian Show Horse and Rider Championships (i.e. State HOTY's) must be run by the State's Show Horse Committee (who may form or co-opt an organising sub committee). Refer to EA Conflict of Interest Policy.
- Results of winners and runners-up and the names of all Finalists to be sent to the relevant EA State Branch Office.
- Judges who have accepted to judge at a State Horse of the Year and Rider Championships will not accept a judging appointment in similar classes at a Royal Show in the same State during the calendar year.
- The Ring Master and Judge's host must be independent and this must be reflected in the State's program.
- A scorer may not officiate in any class where they have a Conflict of Interest or perceived Conflict of Interest and will not have any deliberate contact with the Judges prior to the class/classes or in which the Conflict of Interest occurs.
- A competitor may not exhibit before a judge if within the period of six months of the date of competition:
 - The competitor is a member of the judge's family
 - The competitor has represented the judge or competed on a horse owned by the judge
 - The horse or any horse was owned or leased by:
 - The judge;
 - Any member of the judge's family;
 - The judge's employer, employee or business partner'
 - The judge or his business partner provided privately arranged tuition to the horse or competitor (not including group clinics);
 - The competitor has given privately arranged tuition to the judge or trained or prepared a horse owned or leased by the judge (not including group clinics);

- The competitor is employed, has been employed by or has been a business partner of the judge
- In addition to the above dot points, a competitor may not exhibit before a judge if he or his family has provided private accommodation for the judge within a 3 month period prior to or during the event.
- A judge or his family shall not visit neither the competitors nor the competitor's horses, nor inspect or discuss any horse entered in the event for the duration of the show, except as required for judging.
- No person shall approach a judge for the duration of the event unless they first obtain permission from the Ring Master or Ring Steward. A competitor seeking the opinion of a judge must do so under the supervision of a Steward.

AUSTRALASIAN SHOW HORSE AND RIDER CHAMPIONSHIPS:

- Horses must be registered with, and riders and owners members of Equestrian Australia Ltd.
- The class a horse qualifies for at a State Championships will be the class that the horse competes in at the National Championships, regardless of changes to a height certificate or protests.
- All measuring to be finalised at State Championships and any protests at State Championships should include a valid reason.
- The right of the protest remains but does not exclude a horse once it has qualified for the National Championships unless the protest had been lodged prior to the event of qualification.

ENSW 2024 SHOW HORSE SPECTACULAR:

- All winners, 1st runner up & 2nd runners up (excluding Arabian & Warmblood classes) will be eligible to attend the 2024 ENSW Show Horse Spectacular to be held at SIEC March or April 2024.
